

Awards

1. Most active person of the Congress:
Jean P. Fossion, Belgium

2. Most original subject of the Congress:
P. Bäumlér, Germany

What really matters in acupuncture - A multi-method approach for an intercultural comparison between China, Argentina, and Germany P. Bäumlér, L. Wu, C. Böhme, D. Carballo, W. Shu, M. Hammes, M. Ahrendts¹, S. Joos⁶, D. Irnich

3. Most well documented paper of the Congress:
P. Sautreuil, France

Neuro-acupuncture and rehabilitation medicine
P. Sautreuil¹, P. Thoumie¹, M. Piquemal¹, B. Missaoui¹, S. Bendaya¹, M. Mane¹, F. Roman¹, M. Dib³, V.S. Witvoet⁴, P. Portero¹

4. Veterinary Section Award:
D. Schmitt, France
The peculiarities of acupuncture in the cat

5. Poster award:
M. Belivani, Greece
The immediate effect of 3 different electroacupuncture protocols on fasting blood glucose in obese patients - A pilot study M. Belivani, T. Lundeberg, M. Cummings, C. Dimitroula, N. Belivani, D. Vasilakos, A.I. Hatzitolios.

Awards Committee: W. Maric-Oehler (Germany), K. Theodoratou (Greece), G. Fazakis (Greece).

Awards given by SAMAG.